

Biographical Sketch

Bill Collar was a social studies teacher and football coach for 29 years at Seymour High School. He has been recognized as Social Studies Teacher of the Year, Wisconsin Teacher of the Year, and Wisconsin Football Coach of the Year. He coached state champions in football and track. A unique motivational speaker, Bill combines a rich treasure of motivational principles with common sense and humorous anecdotes. After speaking part-time for 20 years, Bill now shares his message with audiences throughout the nation.

Through the use of images and lessons from history, a meaningful story unfolds as Bill relates the process necessary for personal success. Bill's enthusiasm is contagious as he draws upon personal experiences and the lives of great Americans to tailor his presentation to the interests of the audience. His "All The Way With PMA!" theme applies to individuals in all walks of life. A recipient of the Dave McClain Distinguished Service Award for football in Wisconsin, Bill has spoken with groups ranging from the Wisconsin Badger Rose Bowl Champions to keynoting the State School Superintendent's Convention.
